THE IN-GATE

Hello, everyone! Le Cheval has grown to have a robust riding academy, training program and show team. With many riders, family members and friends at the barn at all different hours of the day, we are starting a monthly newsletter to keep everyone in the loop!

At horse shows, the in-gate is where the rider enters the ring. This segment will be used to share the latest news around the stable.

AUGUST RECAP

Mallory Floyd, Katie Leupold and Lucy Gallagher, show team riders, headed off to college this month! We will miss their beautiful smiling faces.

- Mallory - Michigan State University
- Katie & her horse Gwen - Elon University
- Lucy & her horse Rico - Colorado State University

Mallory's horse Askie will be staying with us for a year and is available for half-lease.

DYNAMIC DUOS

In case don't already have the pleasure of knowing 17-year-old Leslie Bessen, a show team rider, here's what you're missing!

She is a senior at Beckman High School and owns Lana, an 11-year-old Holsteiner. The new pair wins in the 1.00M jumpers and have a bright future together. Leslie's mom Debbie also takes lessons with us and started riding the family's other horse, Duncan.

RIDER SPOTLIGHT

Lesson student Kaylie Rihn, 6-years-old, rode in the arena off a lunge line for the first time. She may be little, but she piloted Lola around like a champ. We look forward to future ribbons Kaylie will surely be winning in the show ring. She has been in the riding program for a year.

Other related, big news! Lola was adopted by Michelle Delvaux and will be staying at Peacock Hill.
